PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Monica Asbury

Welcome Rob Alen to the Pando team! As Pando Editor, we're all looking forward to the special flare and flavor you'll be bringing to the Pando. Speaking of Pando, it seems like every month someone asks, "What does Pando mean?" Pando is short for Pandemonium. When the Club was being launched and organized there was much "pandemonium" when the newsletter was being assembled. Since most members referred to the Pandemonium as the Pando, the name slowly transitioned to Pando. With the transition to Pando, our Club Designer, Denny Asbury, created a sophisticated masthead for our Pando magazine, and Pando was born!

While Rob compiles the Pando each month, it is most helpful when our members contribute to the content. Rob has a roadmap of themes for the Pando for the remainder of the year, so watch for those article requests as we love to read about your Porsche stories and road trips.

It is my great pleasure to also welcome Karez Lopez to the Board of Directors. Karen stepped forward and expressed an interest in the Membership Chair position and was unanimously voted in by the EC and appointed Membership Chair for PCA-OCR! I know Karen, with the support of her husband Jesse, will be an integral part in our recruiting efforts. Karen has a wealth of knowledge and background when it comes to Porsches. She and her immediate family have a total of five "P" cars! We are thrilled she will be joining us on the Board.

It's time to RSVP for our 2021 New Member's Picnic scheduled for Saturday, September 18th. The Laguna Niguel Regional Park will again be our venue for our Picnic. All members and their families who joined October 2019 through September 2021 will be provided a free BBQ lunch! It's a great event, well attended by many past, present and new members. Please RSVP: sheamonica@gmail for the number in your party to ensure we have plenty of food!

October will be here before you know it! Please submit your Volunteer Form for the Festival of Speed, "CFOS," at the Auto Club Speedway in Fontana, October 30th and 31st. This two-day event is loaded with adult and junior Porsche-centric activities. CFOS is 100% fueled by volunteers. Please consider registering for a shift or two. It's easy to volunteer: volunteer@calfestival.org, and include the shift you would like to 'work.'

Please watch for OCR emails for details on our upcoming events and activities.

Stay well, safe driving and enjoy the ride!

EDITOR'S LETTER

Rob Alen

As you may know, Marcia Salans is stepping back from editing the Pando and I have been invited to step in. Marcia and Pando contributors have set a high standard to maintain.

These days PCA-OCR's Bob Weber is the man-of-the-hour. His 1977 Porsche 934.5 935 won the "Amelia Award for the Porsche 935 class," at the recent Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance in Florida.

Bob is also the fellow to see about advertising in the Pando. There are many ways to buy and sell a car; you can visit a Porsche dealer, there are the major auction houses, certainly Bring a Trailer, a consignment dealer for convenience, or the Pando Classifieds. Here you can personally connect with the buyer or seller, hard to do over the internet. Look for a guy with a big smile, it'll be Bob Weber who will help you with the Pando Classifieds (hbobw930@aol.com; 714-960-4981).

Thanks again to Marcia. For future issues, send in your favorite road trip, "Why I bought it." and "The one you would like back." Or if you have another article idea, send it in. Till then, all the best. Drive carefully.

Rob Alen, Editor
robalen602@gmail.com

"Every member has a story, every Porsche has a story"
Send yours.

Share your Porsche experiences with other OCR members.

- Consider a memorable road trip or drive.
- "Why I bought it." How you came to buy your Porsche.
- "For the Love of Porsche." Do you have one, two, more in your garage?

1. Gather your article ideas in a WORD document, no ZIP files.
2. In no more than 2 pages double spaced, 12-point type.
3. 3-5 photos of high resolution for quality and along with captions.
4. We'll help prepare the article for publication.

Please submit your article to Editor, Pando, (robalen602@gmail.com) by the 20th of the month.

new meaning :

Story by Angie Kardashian with Rob Alen

It doesn't take long for Angie Kardashian to decide to do something.

In 1986, when Angie saw a Guards Red 911 Carrera Coupe, she promptly bought one off the showroom floor at Chick Iverson's Newport Beach dealership. The Porsche was her everyday driver then, today it is her weekend and, of course, PCA event's car. When she is out, admirers frequently offer to purchase it on the spot!

One of her most memorable road trips was up the California coast from Orange County via the Santa Ynez Valley to visit wineries in the Napa and Sonoma wine country.

When Angie purchased her 911, she was a successful owner of Angie's Cuisine Italiano in Tustin and regularly used the car to deliver catering orders. She made a name for herself by offering affordable fare and frequently donating pizza and Italian meals to Marines at the Marine Corps Air Station and El Toro Marine Base. For 18 of her 22 years as a restaurateur, she provided a free Thanksgiving meal to 750 Marines and their families -- with Colonels and Generals waiting on tables in her restaurant.

She was named Tustin Woman of the Year in 1993 and is especially proud to have received the Meritorious Public Service Medal from the Marines, their highest civilian recognition award. Only 200 in the history of the Marines have been so honored.

Her "ANGZPZA" personalized license plate pays homage to those restaurant days.

In August 2001, to receive her award from the Marine Corps, she visited the Pentagon, and then traveled to New York City for a short vacation; she stopped at the World Trade Center, had lunch at Windows on the World in the North Tower, and visited the Observation Deck on the South Tower.

About a month later after her visit, came the tragedy of September 11, 2001. Right where she had been.

The world changed, and she decided to make some changes. Within six weeks she sold her restaurant and left for New York City to support the firemen and women doing what she did best: cooking.

For the next two years, she prepared and served meals for 103 fire companies of the New York Fire Department. They rewarded her with an honorary FDNY firefighters' medal.

Since then, Angie has created a 9/11 Museum in her home dedicated to the Marines, FDNY, police, and first responders. She opens it for tours annually on September 11th.

"Everyone remembers where they were on September 11, 2001. And this year, as the 20th anniversary approaches, I especially want to remind everyone to "NEVER FORGET," a promise I made to the FDNY. Never forget the day and the impact it made on our lives and world."

PORSCHE 935 WINS.

Left: In its heyday, Bob Weber's Porsche won the 1977 Trans Am Championship

Right: BRUMOS 934.5 Amelia Concours 2021 Award presentation

AGAIN.

Story by Rob Alen

The Porsche 935 racecar was honored at the 2021 Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance in Florida.

Amelia Island has become a prestigious concours event on the calendar, with a particular penchant for racing cars.

PCA-OCR's own Bob Weber was recognized with the "Amelia Award in the Porsche 935 class" for his 1977 934.5/935 in the colors of the iconic Brumos Porsche team. There were over a dozen world famous 935s in the class including the 1979 24-Hours of Le Mans overall winner. Kudos to Bob.

Bob's car won the 1977 Trans Am Championship; driven by Peter Gregg and Hurley Haywood to win 8 of 10 races.

The 935 raced internationally in Group 5 for production cars in the late 1970s and early 1980s. Porsche engineer Norbert Singer read the fine print of the regulations: he saw the opportunity to add body cowlings to the 911; with a famously lowered "slant" front end and a Pterodactyl-like rear wing for aerodynamic down force.

Porsche fielded a factory team but sold cars and parts to privateer racing teams. Starting grids became populated with the 935. Out of 370 races entered, a 935 won 123 races.

In 1953 Hubert Brundage bought a Porsche dealership in Jacksonville, Florida (coincidentally, about a 40-minute drive from Amelia Island). It became Brumos Porsche; ownership evolved to Peter Gregg who went racing. Along with Hurley Haywood, they won races and championships with their red-white-and-blue trimmed Porsches, emblazoned with the number "59."

Gregg did naval duty on the USS Forrestal aircraft carrier. He liked the look of its number: 59. So it appeared on his racecars exactly like on the Forrestal.

Brumos Porsche is one of the very few dealership entities where their racing team became world famous. Bob Weber's car is special.

OCR's own Bob Weber won the "Amelia Award for the Porsche 935 class" at the 2021 Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance.

PORSCHE 935 WINS.

Extremely knowledgeable judges for the Porsche 935 Class judged the Brumos 934.5 .

The Amelia Award Porsche 935 - Bob, Paul, Jack, Maggie, Roof

After the 3 Hr. Championship of Makes win, Peter Gregg gave the Mid Ohio race trophy to his crew chief, Jack Atkinson, as a gift for doing such a great job in beating the Factory 935s.

Jack Atkinson, a dear friend of mine now, brought the Mid Ohio Trophy after keeping it for 44 years and gave it to me at the 2021 Amelia Island Concours.

Jack said to me....."we are all caretakers of Porsche history.....please take this Trophy....it belongs with the Brumos 934.5 and you for all your concours victories and keeping the name of 'Brumos Racing' alive....."

Porsche 911 Targa Heritage.

Time for the Targa.

Story and Photos by Allen Stewart

orsche's early international motorsports successes were in the craggy hills of Sicily at the Targa Florio, the inspiration of Vincenzo Florio, a wealthy citizen of Palermo. His family made a fortune selling Marsala wine.

The open road race ran from 1906 to 1977. Porsche won it more times than any other manufacturer.

In the mid-1960s, to address growing US safety regulations, Porsche developed a stainless steel rollover bar for the convertible 911. They called the model, "Targa," which means plate or plaque in Italian.

Introduced at the 1965 Frankfurt Auto Show, the targa-style was not new and had been used by other manufacturers, it combines the open top for sunny days, and a closed coupe for when it is not. Porsche has made it famous.

There have been seven generations of the Targa. One of the latest being the Heritage edition.

The style is over a half-a-century old and is still modern.

Early Targas came with a fold-down plastic rear window.

Beginning in 1967, the Targa model could be ordered with a fixed, heated rear window of safety glass.

RICE'S Ramblings

Story and Photos by Lee Rice

2018 PORSCHE 911 GT2 RS

Most of us know what this is and its origins, sort of?

I won't use any "post pandemic" verbiage for a long while yet as it still is reported something like 12,000 people are dying daily from it in our world.

But things are opening up, cautiously, and slowly, thankfully. I see it in our own PCA world of "PANDO-ites." Remember "PORSCHE PUSHERS," that applied to everything from social gatherings, rallies, and of course time trial weekends. But it implied we were all kind of nuts over our Porsches. True, true.

Looking at the GT2 RS I see my blood pressure up, the passion is still hot.

All Porsches dealt with aerodynamics from early on. However, aviation of course, came to existence with the successful use of an airfoil. "Aircraft" came into being with the use of two things, three actually. 1. A workable airfoil ("wing"), 2. A powerful enough engine that would power another airfoil to propel the aircraft and 3. GUTS!

Air not only powered the aircraft but as the very early aircraft engines needed to cool its water coolant, air again came into play to cool it.

Air-oil cooled engines were the major power source for aircraft from early days (and jet engines are air-oil cooled still today). So we learned to work WITH aerodynamics on the engine, as well as the air frame. Aircraft rapidly evolved as both principles worked and were refined together.

Automotive aerodynamics lagged behind, because of designer whims and the interest in fancy styles.

Today automotive aerodynamics are everywhere, mostly for mandated fuel mileage requirements and emission requirements to not only clean exhaust but emit a lot less of it.

But there have been bold steps along the way to the “aero” age and on that point there are some striking examples that adhered to the ideal of aerodynamic principles first, and everything else had to fit within that principle, just as it has in aviation.

The P-car beast above knows few, if any challengers for its road and track abilities, but it is also a road car with enough civil manners to be a sane daily driver. Its shape evolved from an airfoil principle from 1964 as it still applies today.

I have always been interested in aviation and automobile history and the early days. I’m so often seeing again, ideas that I thought were from recent times, but find they were first developed a long while ago. Our love of 911 and its dreamy aero looks has a long history of earlier ideas.

The Streamlined Car had to be a marvel in those days of the early 1930s and it still seems like an early modern?

I can’t imagine a heavy engine hanging that far out back, but it is a large car to begin with and carries 7 passengers and weighs 4,250 lbs. It ran up to 80 mph and that was with a 22 hp engine.

The Streamlined Car was created by Sir Dennistoun Burney, who rose to fame as an airship designer, best known for his R100 Airship for Vickers.

Starting in 1927, thirteen cars were made. The streamlined bodywork is long at just under 20 feet (6.1 m). The spare wheel was carried inside one of the rear doors which must have put an enormous strain on the hinges and door pillar. The equivalent space in the opposite door was occupied either by a second spare wheel or a cocktail cabinet. The car’s unusual aerodynamic design was eye-catching, with very little front overhang, but a long rear overhang (containing the engine).

• Streamlined Car Carries Engine at Rear •

At high speeds, the resistance of the ordinary automobile to the air is so great that it materially increases the cost of fuel per mile. The streamline shape is well known in racing; but the English car shown above is fitted for ordinary travel. Since the streamlined shape is blunt in front, the seats are placed well forward, and the storage compartments and the engine at the sharply-pointed rear. The car, designed by a prominent aviation engineer, is to make 80 miles an hour with an expenditure of 80 horsepower; it weighs 4250 pounds, seats seven passengers, and has an engine rated at only 22 hp. at normal speeds, but which will work up to 80.

The underside was also covered in sheet metal to enhance aerodynamic efficiency. The Streamlined Car pointed to the future in terms of space efficiency, featuring a seven-seat interior and, even by the standards of the time, excellent headroom, which seems to have been a particular concern for the designer.

The Streamlined Car idea seems so right for the automobile but it didn't catch on in mass production.

I'm reminded that "cars" came from "Carriages" and that from the "horse and buggy" days. Cars have been not just people movers but hauling stuff, lots of stuff; in, under, on top of, and trailering behind, and so on. No wonder the "SUV" and Vans like Dodge's Caravan is still so popular. On that point, I like how even Dodge and Daimler Benz aerodynamically re-shaped the boxy 1st generation Caravan model into a nice looking but aerodynamically more efficient car. I noticed a difference in driving our 1st generation Caravan (1990), a BOX if ever there was one to our 2005 Daimler-Chrysler with a new aerodynamic body and a noticeably quieter drive at freeway speed, and it looks a whole lot better.

Still our 911 has shown its aero genes for all of its years and it is an integral part of the 911 for sure. It simply just will NOT get old!

PANDO SUCCESS STORY #1:

*ALL,
Really appreciate the great exposure for my sale in Pando and the exposure to the perfect "Porsche" audience with similar interests!
Keep up the great work and a special thanks!*

PANDO SUCCESS STORY #2:

I want everyone to know The Pando really works if you're looking to sell, or buy, a P car:

I sold the car 2 days after the ad first appeared with a photo of the car. I had one call from a PCA member who offered me less than I was asking, and the next day I got another call from a friend of a PCA member who was looking for a nice 993 and his friend (the PCA member) showed him the ad. It was a young Doctor in Irvine, who loved the car and did not argue about the price. He visited my mechanic (Robert at Auto Strasse in Costa Mesa) who had just serviced the car, after he got a clean bill of health on the car, we went to his bank and I got a check. Easy, safe sale! The car is in a good home. I told the new owner that he should join the club so he might do that.

Both dealers said they would advertise the car for about $75,000 and that it would probably sell for around $72,000, if I was lucky. This was a little disappointing since I hoped to get around $70,000. I bought the car in 1998 for $50,000 with 4K miles. I also would have had to spend money to sell it and give up a sizable percentage. But both dealers pointed out that they would reach many more potential buyers than I could. I was ready to go that route when I thought of placing an ad in the Pando, and the rest is history!

Pando advertising worked great! And the reach is far greater than just OCR members! Right after I sold the car I got a call from the first interested party wanting to pay full price but it was already sold. I have also received about 6 calls about the car since.
